

EXAMPLE: WHAT TO RECORD TODAY

Here is an example of a classroom activity matrix. This can be used to list children’s individual learning goals, and plan how to collect anecdotal records during regular classroom activities and routines. There is a blank copy of the What to Record Today chart on the next page for use in your own classroom.

Names: Classroom schedule:	Ben	Sofia	Liam	Olivia

WHAT TO RECORD TODAY

Directions: Post this classroom activity matrix as a reminder to record observations for ongoing child assessment. Write your schedule of activities down the side of the matrix. Write the names of children being observed across the top.

If your matrix is laminated, use an erasable marker to write in the cells. Sticky notes may also be placed in the cells.
