

Using Rich Documentation to Engage Families and Children
Excerpt: Links Relevant to Progress Monitoring during Remote Instruction

Presented by Larry Edelman
larry.edelman@ucdenver.edu
Department of Pediatrics, University of Colorado School of Medicine

Using Technology to Enhance Family Engagement:
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-LRVC4SGyD4>

Sharing Video Documentation with Families:
<https://youtu.be/uqzOTWJITIU>

Watching video documentation with Children:
<https://youtu.be/7q3KEg2BUJY>

Using iPad to document observation:
<https://youtu.be/uL0pmADRInA>

Using iPad Touch and iPhone to record and video photographic information:
<https://youtu.be/qO-UZMif0j4>

Making Documentation a Habit:
<https://youtu.be/YUSVb3kpd5M>

Statement from Dr. Larry Edelman: Early childhood practitioners are increasingly using video and photographs to document young children's learning and progress in order to inform assessments. In addition to using this rich documentation to complete assessments as accurately as possible, practitioners are finding other creative and effective ways to use these photos and videos that lead to better outcomes.

Reference

Edelman, L. (2011). Using Digital Video to Enhance Authentic Assessment. Young Exceptional Children Monograph Series No. 13