

1. Visual supports are used to enhance instruction

1d. Class displays are child-created and/or related to instructional units.

Quality indicators:

- The classroom display changes throughout the year.
- The display is predominantly child created.
- There is variety in the display – some projects are academic such as writing or patterning, some projects are class projects, and some are purely for exploration and creative expression.
- Adequate supports are provided for motor, organization, and communication related to projects.
- Children are encouraged to make choices, perform independently, and describe their projects.

Artistic Process Emphasized:
Children are permitted to explore and create.

Questions to ask:

- ✓ When are children allowed to create their own artwork or explore with creative materials?
- ✓ Are children allowed to create class projects that differ from the teacher provided samples?

Product development is emphasized:
Adult directed activity with minimal creative expression

Universal Supports

- Discuss and display expectations for the art center and provide prompts and guided practice in selecting, using, and cleaning up materials.
- Encourage children to work in pairs or small groups and to share ideas for open-ended projects.
- Allow extra time or an additional time period for children to be able to complete their projects.

Targeted/Specialized Supports

- Provide a model and step-by-step directions on a mini-schedule for the activity. Model each step of a teacher-directed project.
- Accommodate for sensory defensiveness by allowing a child to choose an alternative method of using materials.
- Use various placements of paper (horizontal, vertical) and provide a way to show the border of the artwork (tape, cookie sheet).
- Provide tools with various sizes and styles of grips and handles
