

16. The adults in the classroom work collaboratively as a team.

16a. Teaching staff uses problem solving in their interactions with children and one another and models the problem solving process in naturally occurring situations.

Description: The teachers work together during indoor and outdoor activities. The teacher is modeling the implementation of a teaching strategy for the classroom paraprofessional.

16. The adults in the classroom work collaboratively as a team.

16b. Teachers provide direction or instruction to other team members about how to work within the classroom.

Description: The teacher works with her paraprofessional on lesson plans for the classroom and they brainstorm solutions to issues as they arise.

16. The adults in the classroom work collaboratively as a team.

16c. Teaching staff speaks positively to and about other team members.

Description: The teaching staff enjoy working with one another. They have made an extra effort to support one another and establish a positive working relationship.

16. The adults in the classroom work collaboratively as a team.

16d. A schedule of staff responsibilities is posted.

Description: The daily schedule with staff responsibilities is posted near the teacher's desk .

