Design Question: What will I do to engage students?

24. What do I typically do to notice when students are not engaged?

The teacher scans the room, making note of when students are not engaged and taking overt action.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher notices when specific students or groups of students are not engaged.
- Teacher notices when the energy level in the room is low.
- Teacher takes action to re-engage students.

Student Evidence

- Students appear aware of the fact that the teacher is taking note of their level of engagement.
- Students try to increase their level of engagement when prompted.
- When asked, students explain that the teacher expects high levels of engagement.

How Am I Doing?

Noticing when students are not engaged	I adapt and create new strategies for unique student needs and situations.	I scan the room, making note of when students are not engaged and taking action, and I monitor the extent to which students re-engage.	I scan the room, making note of when students are not engaged and taking action, but I do so in a somewhat mechanistic way.	I use the strategy incorrectly or with parts missing.	I should use the strategy, but I don't.
